Thilo Folkerts was born in Neuenhaus, Germany in 1967. He studied landscape architecture at Technische Universität Berlin (TUB), taught as an assistant professor at the Chair of Landscape Architecture at the ETH in Zurich, Switzerland from 1999 to 2002, and as invited professor at the School of Landscape Architecture at the Université de Montréal, Canada in 2006. Lecturer at TUB in 2008/2009 and at the Academy of the Arts in Stuttgart in 2011/12. Continuously working also on independent projects he has worked as project architect at Topotek 1 from 2002-2006, with ongoing project-based collaboration. Based in Berlin, Thilo Folkerts, has since 1997, realized temporary works as experimental set-ups on the concept of the garden. Temporary projects were installed in Quebec, Le Havre, Lausanne, Basel, Zurich, Sardinia, Rome, Kortrijk, Brussels, Baruth, Frankfurt/Oder, and Berlin. In addition to working as a landscape architect who designs, experiments and constructs, he pursues his interest in the unique language of gardens as author, editor and translator. Thilo Folkerts founded 100Landschaftsarchitektur in 2007. In 2014 he was a fellow at the German Academy Villa Massimo in Rome.
